- c. The Debtors' are making attempts to rebut my claim's presumptive validity. The Local Rules do not set forth specific guidelines for filing omnibus objections to proofs of claim. Although the Notice of Omnibus Objection was attached, it has been tailored for multiple claimants. It has been stated that there are thousands of Claims filed in these cases, the claims resolution process should only be carried out individually to assure efficiency and effectiveness since procedures are in place by the Court. The Omnibus Objection Procedures further request authority to object to the Claims on grounds that are not specifically listed in Bankruptcy Rule 3007 (d). The Debtors should be limited to the grounds identified in Bankruptcy Rule 3007 (d). In Conclusion, the Court should rely solely on its equitable powers, which empowers the Court to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of [the Bankruptcy Code]." 11 U.S.C. § 105 (a); Canal Corp. v. Finnman (In re Johnson), 960 F.2d 396, 404 (4th Cir.1992) (the allowance or disallowance of a claim in bankruptcy is a matter of federal law left to the bankruptcy court's exercise of its equitable powers.").
- c. On page 2 of Exhibit A, Proposed Order, "Therefore" has been misspelled making the proposal void.
